

Song 65
(New wine)

1. In Canaan town, at a wedding feast,
One day long years gone by;
The Son of Man sat down to eat,
But He was in disguise.

They all partook of meat prepared,
His mother and the rest;
But in the midst of food so good,
They were of wine bereft.

2. The hour came and the Son of Man
Bid them cost all reason down;
Then they drank the wine by Him prepared,
The best they'd ever found.

We ate the food the Prophet gave,
We knew it was the Word;
We waited in the Son and prayed,
And lingered with the Lord.

3. But like as in the days of yore,
When out of wine they ran;

We longed to feel the joy of God,
See Him reveal His hand.

And so it was the Son of Man,
To us new Wine has given;
The joy we now cannot contain,
Since He has come from Heaven.

- 4. A little man from out the East,
Like lightning to the West;
Provided us with this New Wine,
It is indeed the best.

We thank the Lord we saw the flash,
And know that soon we'll be;
Forever with the Lord we love,
And His face we will see.
