

Song 50

- 1. I've been down into the deepest valley,
I've been up to heights delights to see;
But nowhere could I find
This thing called peace of mind;
Life is just a prison house to me.

But now I'm so glad Christ Jesus found me,
And everyday He whispers to me:
'I didn't have to die,
But I loved you didn't I?'
Hallelujah, Christ has set me free!

- 2. I had friends who left me when in trouble,
I didn't know that life to be so cruel;
But one by one I found,
They only let me down;
Life is just a prison for a fool. - But now
- 3. Outside the prison walls there's lots of people,
Seized to sin and seized to Satan too;
They tell themselves they're free,
But oh they just can't see;
Life is just a prison for a fool. - But now
